

Date/Time:

September 28th, 8:30 – 10:00

Session 4:

Demonstrations of beach remediation and what we have learned from sanitary survey data

Co-chairs:

Julie Kinzelman/Greg Kleinheinz

Speaker (ordered):

1. Introduction, Greg Kleinheinz/Julie Kinzelman (0830 – 0835)
2. An Update on Great Lakes Restoration Initiative Beach Projects in Michigan, Shannon Briggs, Water Resources Division, Michigan Department of Environmental Quality (0835 – 0850)
3. The Grand Traverse Region's Healthy Beaches Program - Education, Monitoring, and Restoration, Sarah U'Ren, Program Director, The Watershed Center Grand Traverse Bay (0850 – 0905)
4. Beach Remediation and the Triple Bottom Line for our Communities - Demonstrations of Beach Remediation, Melissa Soline, Great Lakes and St. Lawrence Cities Initiative (0905 – 0920)
5. Chequamegon Bay Clean Beach Challenge, Mike Gardner, Sigurd Olson Environmental Institute - Northland College (0920 – 0935)
6. Improving Water Quality at Beaches by Reducing Stormwater Impacts with Naturalized Design, Peter G. Pittner, Miller Engineers & Scientists (0935 – 0950)
7. Questions (0950 – 1000)*

*Each presentation will be 15 minutes. Questions will be held to the end and presented to the panel (or each speaker could have 2 minutes immediately following their talk).